

INTRODUCTION TO INDUSTRIAL MAINTENANCE CERTIFICATE

Certificate: 97-462-3

Campus: Fond du Lac

About the Program

Industrial maintenance mechanics are needed in every manufacturing industry. This boot camp provides the training that will prepare people with entry-level skills in industrial maintenance positions. Participation must be employer approved.

Financial Aid

May be eligible for grant funding. Not eligible for financial aid.

Additional Information

For more information – call 920-924-3334, TTY/VP. Use Relay/VRS or email bootcamps@morainepark.edu.

Boot Camp Criteria

This entry-level industrial maintenance boot camp is designed for individuals who have general manufacturing experience and wish to enter the industrial maintenance profession. Participants must be sponsored by their employer to attend.

Next Steps

Individuals interested in participating must be sponsored through their employer. Employers should contact bootcamps@morainepark.edu for more information.

Questions

Email: bootcamps@morainepark.edu

Phone: 920-924-3334, TTY/VP. Use Relay/VRS

Course Requirements

Course	Title	Credits
Courses
462-101	Industrial Maintenance Safety	1
462-102	Basic Blueprint/Schematic Reading	1
462-103	Introduction to Power Transmission Systems	1
462-104	Introduction to Industrial Controls	1
620-108	Basic Hydraulics and Pneumatics	1
620-109	Programmable Controllers 1	1
Credits		6
Total Credits		6

Career Opportunities

- Industrial Maintenance Technician

Statewide Median Salary for Recent Graduates

$46,606