

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

Student Code of Conduct Policy

The Student Code of Conduct Policy applies to all individuals registered for classes or engaged in a college sanctioned activity, both on campus or at offsite locations, including international travel.

Every student, as defined in the scope above, has the right to pursue their education free from disruption, harassment, threats or danger. Any conduct or communication in any form that impedes the educational process, violates the rights, or intimidates staff or students will not be tolerated. The College has processes and procedures that define offenses, designate sanctions and clarify procedural requirements. Students are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a manner that does not interfere with the educational process; endanger the safety or welfare of other students or staff; or represent a violation of established statutes, ordinances or public laws.

Reason for the Policy:

This policy is intended to ensure that all students, as defined in the scope of this policy, understand the rights and responsibilities they have as a participant in an educational program or college sanctioned activity. It also provides clear guidelines, for all employees, on the standards of conduct that are acceptable.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Students are responsible for their own learning and development. They have a responsibility to be active learners by attending class, participating in class activities and discussions, completing class and laboratory assignments, and preparing in advance for scheduled class session.

While attending Moraine Park Technical College, students have the right to:

- Receive high-quality education and services.
- Be treated with respect and courtesy.
- Have their information kept private and confidential, according to FERPA guidelines.
- Be listened to and have staff work with them to address their concerns and needs.
- Obtain information and support to make decisions to improve their situation.
- Be provided services and resources without discrimination.

Moraine Park Technical College Expectations of Students

- Treat the employees and others at Moraine Park Technical College with courtesy and respect.
- Adhere to the policies and procedures identified in the College Catalog.
- Request support and services when needed.
- Complete and return all required documents.
- Interact with civility and mutual respect.
- Follow and adhere to the MPTC Career and Life Skills: Communication, Reasoning, Professionalism, Engagement and Awareness.

Civility and Mutual Respect

MPTC students are expected to conduct themselves with civility and mutual respect. This means that students are encouraged to show respect for others (students, employees and community members); contribute to mutual respect, effective communication, and team collaboration; maintain a positive and cooperative attitude; and exhibit professional and ethical behaviors.

However, there are some circumstances in which behavior may justify disciplinary action up to and including separation of the offending party from MPTC. These behaviors include:

- Expression that violates the law.
- Expression that falsely defames a specific individual.
- Expression that constitutes a genuine threat or harassment.
- Expression that unjustifiably invades substantial privacy or confidentiality interests.
- Expression that is sufficiently severe or pervasive that it would effectively deny another person's access to the College's resources and opportunities or deprive another person of some other legally protected right.
- Expression that communicates an unlawful threat of violence.
- Expression of a type that tends to provide immediate violent reaction.

In addition, MPTC may reasonably regulate the time, place and manner of expression to ensure that it does not disrupt the ordinary activities of the College. By respecting and valuing each other and maintaining a positive and cooperative attitude, we can dramatically enhance our Campus environment and personal well-being.

Appropriate Dress

Appearance, maturity and behavior are important factors that will influence the faculty members who are called upon to recommend a student for employment or transfer. Prospective employers also are influenced by the appearance of the student applicant. It is the policy of the school that a student dress in accordance with conduct expectations established by various program areas in regard to uniforms and shoes. Safety, cleanliness and appearance should also be considered. Any clothing, headwear or facial covering that disrupts the educational process will not be allowed. Students will be asked to remove or cover the offending item and may be referred to the Director of student Development.

Student Code of Conduct (Nonacademic)

Misconduct subject to disciplinary action includes, but is not limited to:

- Conduct that constitutes a serious danger to the personal safety of other members of the college community or its visitors.
- Physical or verbal abuse, threats, intimidation, harassment, bullying, or cyberbullying that is sufficiently severe or pervasive from both a subjective perspective (i.e., the recipient's view) and from an objective perspective (i.e., a reasonable person's view) that it would effectively deny another person's access to the College's resources and opportunities or deprive another person of some other legally protected right; detention of any person on College property, satellite property, or at College activities; or conduct that endangers the health or safety of some other legally protected#right; detention of any person on College property, satellite property, or at College activities; or conduct that endangers the health or safety of others.

- Violations of the Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity Policy or the Sexual Misconduct Procedure. The policy and procedure can both be found on myMPTC.
- Retaliation against any person or group who makes a complaint, cooperates with an investigation, or participates in a resolution process. Retaliation can take many forms, including continued abuse or violence, bullying, threats, and intimidation. Any individual or group of individuals, not just a complainant or respondent, can engage in retaliation.
- Intentional conduct that obstructs a College official or employee from engaging in the lawful performance of his/her duties.
- Making a knowingly false statement, orally or in writing, to any college employee.
- Violating established laws pertaining to the use of firearms, explosives, or dangerous chemicals on College-owned property, on satellite properties or controlled property, or at College-sponsored activities.
- Forging signatures or falsifying information on documents or records and/or altering documents affecting academic records.
- Excessive use of College resources based on complaints that are frivolous, lacking in merit, intended to harass, or are irrelevant to the person's status as an MPTC student.
- Violating established Federal or Wisconsin statutes, public laws, or local ordinances pertaining to the use, possession, sale or distribution of alcohol, narcotics or illegal drugs on College property, on satellite properties, or at College events.
- Any student or individual who appears to be under the influence of alcohol and /or illicit drugs, on campus or while attending a College event, will be subject to observation by two Security/ Incident Commander employees. If signs of influence are present, the individual will be escorted to the closest non-occupied room. If individual refuses to move, others will be dismissed from the room. If individual becomes argumentative (or behavior escalates higher) local police will be called for assistance. If the individual is a student, the Director of Student Development will be notified of the incident as a student conduct code violation.
- Use of hoverboards, skateboards and drones.

Due Process

In all cases involving student sanctions, the student will be given:

- Notice in writing of violation of student code of conduct
- Opportunity for a meeting to review facts related to the incident and determination of informal resolution or disciplinary sanctions
- Right to appeal the decision/sanction

Sanctions (Nonacademic)

Sanctions will be imposed on students violating any of the above. Sanctions imposed by the College in response to nonacademic misconduct may include one or more of the following penalties based on severity. The Director of Student Development is the delegated authority to determine and enforce appropriate sanctions. These include:

- Temporary Suspension: If the student's behavior presents an immediate danger to self, other students, staff or property, or technological resources, or threatens the disruption or interference of a college sponsored activity, the Director of Student Development, or senior campus administrators can invoke temporary suspension prior to the conduction of a full investigation and hearing. Students may be removed for mental health assessment. When a temporary suspension begins a student may not enter any Moraine Park Technical College campus, regional center or other facility where the College is conducting business unless scheduled to meet with the Director of Student Development or campus administrator to discuss the temporary suspension. All access to technological resources is also suspended. Failure to respond to a temporary suspension letter and meet with MPTC administration within thirty (30) calendar days will result in the student being placed on full suspension for at least one semester.
- Loss of Privileges: Under this provision, the student's relationship with the College is restricted and specific privileges are denied for a designated period of time. Privileges may include, but are not limited to, use of computer resources, student e-mail, library, and/or other services of the College.
- Limited Access: The student shall have limited access to the This is a restriction to selected parts and/or the entire campus, regional center and/or any other facility that provides instruction or activity for the college.

- Apology: A letter of apology from the student to any relevant party, including the College.
- Development: Complete a reflection paper or essay that addresses the following questions/statements:
 - What have you learned from this experience?
 - What will you do differently if the same situation should arise in the future?
 - What are some of the potential consequences of your actions?
 - How did your actions negatively impact your program, fellow students and MPTC?

- How will the MPTC Career and Life Skills factor in your decision making in the future?
- Meeting: A meeting with a college official or counselor to discuss the student's behavior and potential corrective
- Warning: A notice, in writing, to the student that the student is violating or has violated certain College conduct expectations, policies and regulations.
- Probation: A student placed on probation would be allowed to remain enrolled at Moraine Park under the condition that he/she complies with all college conduct expectations or regulations or with other designated standards of conduct. Probation may include a loss of certain privileges and shall not exceed two semesters.
- Suspension: A student placed on suspension loses his/her student status for a specific period of time, not to exceed five years. All student rights and privileges are lost during the suspension. At the conclusion of the suspension, the student may reenroll. After two suspensions, a third incident will result in an expulsion.
- Expulsion: Under expulsion, the student's relationship with the college is terminated. All student rights and privileges are lost permanently. The Vice President of Student Services reviews all recommendations of expulsion.

Resolution of a violation of conduct code is based on the premise that informal resolution is the preferred outcome.

Student Conduct Code (Academic)
