

STUDENT COMPLAINT PROCEDURES

Moraine Park Technical College Complaint Procedures

If a student possesses a concern regarding a policy, process, instruction or services at the College they are encouraged to attempt the resolution of that concern with their initial contact. For instance, an instructional concern should first be shared with an instructor or an advisor.

If students are unsatisfied with the first level of contact, they may bring their concerns to the unit manager or Dean.

Students who are not happy with results from these encounters, may log a concern in the Talk2Us (<https://www.morainepark.edu/contact-us/talk2us/>) system.

Complaints will be promptly routed from the respective Vice President to the responsible manager for follow-up and resolution with the student. All interactions are logged to comply with external regulations related to the collection of student complaints. Complaints should be addressed within two business days.

- Complaints relating to the quality of education or other State or accreditation requirements.
